Heinold-Banwart, Ltd. Tax Manager to Present at ILCPAS Program – January 2012

Heinold-Banwart, Ltd., the largest locally-owned CPA firm in the Peoria area, is pleased to announce that Alan Willadsen will be speaking on January 19, 2012 at the Illinois CPA Society Central Chapter Annual Tax Update at the Par A Dice Hotel. Alan will present information regarding Individual Taxation.

Alan is a Tax Manager in our Tax Services department. Alan serves clients in the manufacturing, professional services, medical, retail and tax-exempt industries. He provides specialized tax research, planning and advice to HB clients, with particular expertise in taxation of executive compensation including stock options; sales and use taxes; state, local and multi-state taxation; and clergy taxation. Alan has a bachelor's degree in music from Wabash College; a bachelor's degree in accounting from Bradley University; and a master's degree in taxation from the University of Illinois.

Heinold-Banwart provides traditional audit, accounting and tax services as well as non-traditional advisory services. These include controllership services, employee benefit plan administration, valuation and litigation support services. The firm builds long-lasting, value-driven relationships and holds itself to the highest industry and professional standards.
